

The FCC should NOT implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home. We used to receive many calls each week and now we rarely receive any calls. It is so refreshing to not have our private time interrupted.